CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Link Medical Diagnostic and Research Laboratories has a culture of giving back to the community. We understand the importance of corporate social responsibility (CSR) in building a sustainable future and creating a positive impact on the society around us. As a result, we take pride in conducting outreaches and providing support to communities in various ways.

Our CSR activities are focused on health, education, environment, and community development. We conduct free medical check-ups, provide medical supplies to underprivileged communities, and organize health awareness campaigns. Through these initiatives, we aim to improve the health and wellbeing of the less privileged members of society, and create a culture of preventative healthcare.
